

Utah State Bar Continuing Legal Education Department (CLE)	Supreme Court Board of Mandatory Continuing Legal Education (MCLE)
Continuing education resource and CLE event creator; designs programs and manages content and faculty for events	Reviews and accredits individual lawyer and CLE provider applications for CLE credit (including ethics and professionalism/civility credit)
Host of three annual conventions and weekly CLE opportunities, including section lunches and brown bag sessions	Supreme Court Board of Mandatory Continuing Legal Education and staff office at the Utah Law & Justice Center
Section and Division liaison; administers section elections and annual meetings/CLE sessions	Tracking and recording of MCLE hours; maintain lawyers' transcripts
Outreach link from the Bar to schools and civic organizations; lessons and presentations provided (including celebration of Law Day and Constitution Day)	Regulates MCLE compliance; oversee administrative suspension and reinstatement process
Advisor to Commission on inclusion and diversity in faculty and topics; curriculum and content manager for CLE sponsored by the Utah State Bar; collaborator with CLE Advisory Committee	Works with Supreme Court to modify MCLE rules and regulations for continuing legal education
Director of Professional Education, Michelle M. Oldroyd 801.297.7033	MCLE Board Director, Sydnie Kuhre 801.297.7035

A table for use in e-bulletin and online
The distinction between MCLE and CLE
Created September 2019